

AutoZone Appoints New Chairman and Chief Executive Officer; Updates Same Store Sales for First 4 Weeks of Fiscal Third Quarter 2005

March 14, 2005

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 14 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- AutoZone, Inc. (NYSE: AZO) today announced the appointment of J.R. Hyde, III as non-executive Chairman of the Board of Directors on an interim basis and William C. Rhodes, III as President and Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Hyde is the founder of AutoZone and has been a member of AutoZone's Board of Directors since its inception. "I look forward to serving as Chairman in this time of transition. AutoZone continues to set the pace in an exciting and growing industry. We will continue to focus on profitably growing sales. We have a solid plan for the future and a strong team to execute it as we optimize long-term shareholder value," said Mr. Hyde.

William C. Rhodes, III, previously Executive Vice President, Store Operations and Commercial, has been promoted to President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Hyde said, "Bill Rhodes has been an integral part of our Company's success for many years now, and I, along with the rest of our board, believe he is an excellent choice to lead the organization's initiatives into the future."

Steve Odland, previously Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer has resigned his positions with AutoZone and accepted the positions of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Office Depot. "During his tenure at AutoZone, Steve developed a great management team that has generated record sales, record earnings and record earnings per share. We are all very appreciative of his efforts and his leadership," said Mr. Hyde.

Additionally, the Company announced that same store sales through the first 4 weeks of the third fiscal quarter (ending May 7, 2005) were down 7%. "While our sales have been a disappointment thus far, we believe the higher gas prices and cooler than normal spring across the country has yet to trigger the usual pickup in customer traffic. We believe our initiatives for the quarter are on track to drive improvements throughout the remaining eight weeks of the quarter," said Mr. Rhodes.

On May 25, 2005, AutoZone will announce results for the third quarter ended May 7, 2005. AutoZone will host a one-hour conference call on May 25, 2005, beginning at 9 a.m. (CDT).

As of February 12, 2005, AutoZone sells auto and light truck parts, chemicals and accessories through 3,474 AutoZone stores in 48 states plus the District of Columbia in the U.S. and 67 AutoZone stores in Mexico and also sells the ALLDATA brand diagnostic and repair software. On the web, AutoZone sells diagnostic and repair information and auto and light truck parts through <http://www.autozone.com>.
